AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

Amusing Popular Ignorance in This Country About the South American.

It is amazing how little we as a people know of the history and of the affairs of our nearest neighbors, says the New England Magazine. With the events of the old world we are tolerably familiar from the time the serpent entered Eden to the latest eruption of an Irish tenant or the latest scandal on the Riviera, but a cloud of ignorance hangs over the southern half of this hemisphere, and until recently we have known but little of the progress or condition of fifty million of people, whose aspirations have been similar to our own and whose advancement in civilization and commercial prosperity has been their pride and their glory.

A justice of the supreme court once asked me what language was spoken in Chili, and a United States senator in a public address alluded to Guatemala as a country of South America. Until recently the books used in our schools had not been corrected for more than a quarter of a century. The same wild horses that roamed with flowing manes and foaming nostrils, over the pampas of the Argentine republic when our fathers studied geography still embellished the text-books, notwithstanding the fact that they disappeared long before the buffalo of Kansas, and the familiar pictures of "The Belles of Lima" that ornamented the picture books of the last generation still remained to misrepresent a people that received their fashions from Paris quite as soon and quite as anxiously as the women of Boston or New York. The citizens of Central and South America have been properly sensitive to our ignorance and indifference, but they have treated us with a toleration and forbearance that ought to make us ashamed, and now that our attention has been diverted in their direction by self-interest they receive us with a cordiality and hospitality that demands a grateful acknowledgment.

EMINENT DANCERS.
Great Men Who Have Excelled in the Gracioso Art.

Here is the proper place to observe that dancing has a bearing on the development of the social order. The medicine men, says the Popular Science Monthly, or priests gain and retain political and social powers through their skill in leading the dance. According to Mr. Beckwith, "the high priest in the religious ceremonies of the Dakotas is invariably a chief, who, through these dances, retains his influence in the tribe." Thus, dancing gives sanction to the powers of the chief, and is one of the necessary qualifications for the office. It is thus associated with position and rank. In the Vedic age (1,000 B. C.), before the rigid division of the castes, the priests were leaders of the dance of the festivals. Later on they became all-powerful Brahmins. The Homeric chiefs were distinguished dancers. Lucian says that Troy was taken, Zeus was saved, and Ariadne ruined by a dance. And David led the dance before the ark. The ancients regarded dancing as a necessary accomplishment. Socrates learned the art in his old age, while Plato, in his Commonwealth, advocated the establishment of dancing schools. The Romans celebrated their victories and pastoral festivals by elaborate dances. They excelled in pantomime dances, from which the ballet was evolved. Emperor Domitian forbade the senators to dance, and for so doing removed several members of the senate. Grave statesmen and politicians of high degree have excelled in the oldest of the arts. Both Sully and Cardinal Richelieu were expert dancers. Think of the august cardinal paying his court to Anne of Austria by performing a saraband before her in jester's dress of green velvet, with bells on his feet and castanets in his hands!

JUMBO'S SUCCESSOR.
Jung Faaha, a Young Elephant, Lives Now in Regent Park Gardens.

Poor Jumbo, whose departure from the Zoological Gardens for America, where he met so untimely a death and was at one time a question of absorbing interest, has a worthy successor, says the London Daily News. Jung Faaha, the elephant brought over by the prince of Wales, was at one time quite a dwarf compared with the departed favorite. He has grown and grown, however, until at the present moment he measures only three inches in height less than Jumbo, an inappreciable difference.

Every day the majestic beast may be seen in the Regent park gardens, walking with stately tread round the grounds, carrying a full complement on his back of little boys and girls and grown-up people. Alas, Jumbo's partner in captivity, died about five years ago. In the same house where Jung Faaha has his habitation is the favorite rhinoceros, who has been for twenty-eight years at the Zoo. This is the longest time an animal of this kind has ever lived in captivity, at all events in London. There was one formerly in Regent park for twenty-three years.

A Wasplish Sting.
What some wasps term "the business end of a wasp" stings with scarcely more antennae than the acid excretions of gas from the stomach to the guttles that are characterized as heartburn. Never was there a case of indigestion without this symptom. Both cause and effect are removable by the fine curative tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which confer regularity and vigor upon a disordered and antacid stomach, with certainty and dispatch. Besides checking the production of rebellious stomach, the Bitters wakes up a dormant liver, and causes the bowels to act like clockwork. As humane regulation has been won by this professional approved medicine as a means of eradication and prevention of heart trouble, and counteracting a tendency to rheumatism and kidney ailments, a wasplish sting and nervousness are also remedied by it.

INKHAM'S PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY...

Coming events cast their shadows before.

The feeling of utter listlessness, lack of energy, desire to be alone, or the "don't care" feeling, are all shadows of coming events. No woman should permit those symptoms to gain ground, for being forewarned, she should be forearmed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will dispense all those shadows. It goes to the very root of all female complaints, renews the waning vitality, and invigorates the entire system. Surely such letters as this will support our claims:

DEAR MADAM.—... I think your Vegetable Compound saved my life; it is the best medicine for kidney and female troubles I ever saw. I induced my friends to use it, and it has never failed.—Mrs. H. E. FOSKETT, West Rutland, Vt.
Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $2.00. An illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two recent stamps.

A Wonderful Statement.
Proprietors of Dullam's Great German Remedies:

GENTLEMEN—I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe Liver and Stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys and to my surprise, after using the bottle I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan, papers, or any other papers in the states, to convince the afflicted that it is the best Blood, Liver and Kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. Have lived here over forty years.

Be sure you get Royal Navy; $1 per quart bottle, 60 cents. Sold by White & White, Thum Bros., and Schmidt, leading druggists.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.

Physicians Outdone.
My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

Abraham Lincoln

When leaving his home at Springfield, Ill., to be inaugurated as president of the United States, made a farewell address to his old friends and neighbors, in which he said, "Neighbors, give your boys a chance."

These words come with as much force today as they did thirty years ago. How give them this chance?

Up in the northwest is a great empire waiting for young and sturdy fellows to come and develop it and "grow up with the country." All over this broad land are the young fellows, the boys that Lincoln referred to, seeking to better their condition and get on in life.

Here is their chance. The country referred to lies along the Northern Pacific railroad. Here you can find pretty much anything you want. In Minnesota, and in the Red river valley of North Dakota, the finest of prairie lands fitted for wheat, corn, or as well for diversified farming. In Western North Dakota and Montana are stock ranges limitless in extent, clothed with the most nutritious of grasses.

If a fruit farming region is wanted, there is the whole state of Washington to select from.

As for scenic delights, the Northern Pacific railroad passes through a country unparalleled. In crossing the Rocky, Bitter Root and Cascade mountains the greatest scenery to be seen in the United States from car windows is found. The wonderful bad lands, wonderful in graceful form and glowing color, are a poem. Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Couer d'Alene are alone worthy of a trans-continental trip, while they are the fishermen's Ultima Thule. The ride along Clark's Fork of the Columbia river is a daylight dream. To cap the climax, this is the only way to reach the far famed Yellowstone Park.

To reach and see all this the Northern Pacific railroad furnish trains and service of unsurpassed excellence. The most approved and comfortable palace sleeping cars the best dining cars that can be made; Pullman tourist cars good for both first and second class passengers; easy riding day coaches, with baggage, express and postal cars, all drawn by powerful Baldwin locomotives, make a train fit for royal travel.

Those seeking for new homes should take this train and go and spy out the land. To be prepared, write to CHAS. F. FEE, G. P. & T. A., St. Paul, Minn.

LIPOLEUMS

This has been the heaviest season we have experienced in the sale of Linoleums.

The line shown by us is thoroughly reliable, as the manufacturer will not ship a yard unless it is three months old.

This gives it a chance to become well seasoned, the most important feature of this hard wearing floor covering.

Our line consists of 25 choice effects distributed among the different grades—We also show the celebrated "Staine's Inlaid," a Linoleum in which the colors extend through the goods to the back, THUS MAKING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO WEAR THEM OUT.

We show many handsome effects in this line, the patterns are an exact counterparts of the English tile and are quite as handsome.

However good the quality, its beauty may be spoiled by laying. Our workmanship is of the best, perfect satisfaction being guaranteed.
